Dear Frank:

I want to let you know that I have your thoughtful letter of 9 April and greatly appreciate your generous comments about my talk before the Edison Electric Institute Convention in New Orleans.

It was very kind of you to write me as you did.

Clover joins me in sending our kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Allen,

I do not wish to let the day go by without sending you a word of congratulation on your penetrating and lucid address before the Edison Electric Institute in New Orleans. In brief compass you have presented an analysis of the "Challenge of Soviet Power" which is beyond all praise.

Friendliest messages to you and Clover.

Yours sincerely,

P.S.- I have asked Miss Stevens to send a copy of it on to Ham.
